OSH felt great, it felt like family. They all made me feel really welcome. They never made me feel like I'm a stranger, even though I didn't know anyone. They show me love. I haven't had that feeling for a long time.

HELLO FROM OSH

2025 has been a year of transition and growth for us at Our Second Home.

We have grown our team, with new team members, and new trustees Hannah Spark and Dr Robyn Smith to help us in this new phase of our work. Collectively, with our team and the support of our partners, we have scaled OSH to reach even more young people with refugee backgrounds across the UK.

Our work and young people have also been affected by wider socio-political challenges. Many of the young people in our community arrived in the UK facing isolation, uncertainty, and a system that makes it hard to feel safe or belong. Too many of them spend months – sometimes years – without a single trusted adult or peer network.

OSH cannot change the whole system. But we can – and do – make sure that every young person who walks through our doors finds connection, stability and a community that sees them fully.

Young people tell us that OSH feels like a home and a family – a place that stays steady even when the world around them does not.

OSH is where we model the kind of community we want to see in the rest of the country: generous, curious, rooted in dignity.

None of that happens by accident. It happens because there is a community behind them. It happens because there are leaders and staff members spending hours on our Leaders Weekends and Pre-Camp training days obsessing over the details of each activity. Because of serious conversations late at night about people's wellbeing and potential.

In 2026, with Sarah stepping up as Deputy Director, OSH will continue to grow and strengthen as an organisation guided by our new strategy and vision for the future. We hope you join us in building new futures, at a time when displaced youth need it more than ever.

HELLO FROM OSH

My highlight of the past year has been watching OSH graduates continue to take more responsibility.

For the past few years the majority of youth leaders on our residentials have experienced the asylum system and have come through our own leadership training programme. Now, over the past year we have established an active Youth Advisory Board, and two OSH leaders have just joined the Board of Trustees.

OSH leaders are rarely shy about speaking their minds. OSH has played a huge role in their lives, it is where they have made friends and developed skills. OSH is theirs. With this stronger voice we are improving our programming, responding more quickly to changing needs, and getting feedback to key decision-makers faster as OSH continues to grow.

There is an inherent tension within OSH: balancing giving our young people real world skills and experiences that prepare them to flourish, with creating an environment where kids can be kids, step away from everyday stresses and pressures, and just laugh and have fun.

For much of this year OSH has felt like a refuge from the stormy world around us. As political pressure builds at home and conflict rages across the world OSH has been a haven for our young people and leaders. A generation of leadership is emerging that is confident about the lives they want to lead and the changes they want to make. All of us should be proud of the help we are providing on this journey.

Under Amos's and the team's leadership, there is a bright future for OSH and all the young people who call it home.

WHY WE EXIST

Displaced young people face considerable challenges in establishing and rebuilding their lives here in the UK.

Attendances have gone from 203 beneficiaries in 2022 to 1,008 in 2025, and the proportion of volunteers who have lived experience of the asylum system have risen from 41% to 68%. This growth is fuelled by a rise from 5 trips in 2022 to 12 in 2025, as well as the creation of two youth clubs that have responded to the desire for year-round community and support.

OSH has always aspired to be a peer-led movement, and having gone a long way to achieve this goal, we are creating meaningful lived experience leadership positions and developing role models with refugee backgrounds. We have also tripled the size of our workforce while also sustaining our proportion of staff members with lived experience.

Ultimately, OSH has helped to build new futures, creating connections and support that have enabled leaders to go on to study medicine, engineering, business, media production, and much more. These positive stories are becoming more frequent, even as the climate darkens around us, showing a testament to what has been made possible through long term relationships and support.

A positive experience in a youth movement can be transformative for these young people. They experience joy and fun, gain social and employability skills, grow confidence in English, a strong and resilient community, and build connections with new and relevant role models. These are crucial for OSH's participants, who, since fleeing violence and persecution from their country of birth, have been robbed of their adolescence.

It is a fantastic opportunity for the young people I work with who otherwise don't get many opportunities to leave London and make new friends from similar backgrounds.

— OSH referrer

KEY SUCCESSES

2025 was a year of growth and learning for OSH. We entered the year having approved our 2024 - 2028 strategy, creating an ambitious roadmap for the charity that we are and the organisation that we want to become.

Our new approach immediately reaped rewards with an increase in delivery and impact across our work. In 2025:

took part in OSH activities in 2025, up from 826 in 2024 and 453 in 2023.

attendances at residentials and 610 at non-residential programmes.

Through expanding staff time and recruiting new staff, we are now a team with a capacity of 5.4FTE.

residential trips in 2025, an increase from 8 in 2024.

OUR RESIDENTIALS

The residentials we offer to young people have always been a key part of what we do at OSH. In 2025, we increased the number of residentials from 8 to 12, including trips for women & girls, leaders' weekends, and residentials across both London & Bristol.

398

Is the overall number of beneficiaries who took part in our programmes, including returning users. This is up from 255 in 2023, an increase of 56% driven by increased capacity and strengthened recruitment.

12

residential programmes were ran over the course of 2025. This was a sharp increase from 8 residentials in 2024 and included:

residentials for participants from London and Essex

residentials for participants from Bristol

253

Were hosted as both participants and leaders with lived experience, up from 128 in 2024.

residentials for women and girls

leaders weekends

cycling trips

THE GROWTH OF OUR RESIDENTIALS

Between 2023 – 2025 we delivered 18 residentials.

When asked during our evaluation, young people shared many reasons for joining OSH. Most commonly to have fun, relax, feel ‘stress free’ and spend time with others. Some shared they joined to make new friends, meet people from similar backgrounds and connect with others their age and others reported joining to improve their English, learn rules about life in the UK and understand more about British culture and other cultures.

Some young people signed up after hearing about OSH through friends or siblings, others attended following referrals from social workers, foster carers or other organisations, and some described returning multiple times after the first trip.

As a result of our residentials, 62% of participants told us they had close friends in the UK before the residential, rising to 69% afterwards, while the proportion of those who described themselves as being comfortable communicating in English rose from 71% to 79%.

NON-RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMMING

This year, we have adjusted, grown, and focused our non-residential programmes.

Our weekly youth club in Easton, Bristol, has become an established part of our work, while our youth club in Hillingdon, West London, continues twice monthly. We closed our online English & Maths classes and folded this into our leadership training offering.

In 2025, we had three cohorts of leaders graduate, including our first Bristol-only cohort. Across all three, we have had 26 leaders graduate, which is an increase from the 7 graduates we had in 2024. As part of their training, they receive four in-person training sessions and eight online sessions. The in-person sessions focus on leadership skills, while the online component is for English language learning, Maths skills, and CV and personal statement writing. Since graduating, we have seen participants get jobs, including at outdoor activity providers, and go onto university.

In Bristol, we run a weekly hub on Tuesday evenings. We have had 98 participants (up from 68 in 2024) coming a total of 485 times.

Activities have included monthly English classes, cooking, skating, and local visits to sites in and around Bristol in partnership with the local branch of Quakers.

In London, we have been running a twice-monthly hub in Hillingdon in partnership with the Hillingdon Refugee Support Group on Monday evenings. Despite being affected by hotel closures, the Hub has had 46 participants (the same as last year) attending a total of 125 times.

We also ran a cycling training course, featuring road safety and maintenance classes, free bikes, and two overnight cycling and camping trips. This came from a restricted fund from the London Cycling Campaign.

NON-RESIDENTIAL SUCCESSES

Our residential offering would not be possible without our young leaders who design and lead the trips. This year we ran three training courses across two cities resulting in a new cohort of leaders to inspire the next generation, Many of these leaders, and our young people meet us weekly at our hubs in each cities. These are spaces for community building, care and fun.

MARYAMA'S STORY

Maryama is 16. She came to the UK 5 years ago to be reunited with her father.

Initially she was finding English hard so was struggling socially and with her confidence. She was also finding her large secondary school, and London as a whole, overwhelming.

A leader from the refugee youth club she was attending told her about OSH, so in October 2023 she attended her first residential.

“ I was very nervous, but everyone was so welcoming. The leaders helped me to meet other people by acting as translators and explaining things I didn't understand. I really loved the rules about everyone respecting everybody which made it a really safe place to just relax, have fun. After going once, I was hooked and kept going back. Now I want to be a leader for sure!

Joining Our Second Home really changed things for me; I stopped being so shy and scared and being so anxious about speaking to people. It helped me to come out of my shell. The English sessions really helped, especially being with others who struggled too. They especially helped me with my GCSEs, which I've just finished.

At OSH I got a group of friends who understand each other. I love that we come from so many different backgrounds, but connect on a deep level. OSH opened my eyes to the world, different cultures, traditions, religions, ways of life and now I really want to travel as an adult.

My dream as a child was to become a sonographer, but I thought that wasn't possible anymore. Then I met one of the leaders, Tomi, who is at university in Saudi Arabia (where my mum grew up). She is helping me to connect with universities out there and find scholarships. They were impressed with my GCSE predictions and said I'm on course for a scholarship. So, OSH's help to get settled in the UK, grow in confidence, improve my English and with my GCSEs means that I am on course to go to university in Saudi Arabia to study to become a sonographer. I can't actually believe it!

I'm also really hoping to become a leader in OSH - I look up to my leaders so much and I want to become just like them. OSH is like a family to me, so I will definitely be leading residential. ”

In December 2025, Maryama joined the Leadership Training Course, and will be graduating as a leader in March 2026. She will be following in the footsteps of her friends and cousins who have graduated before, and who she inspired to join OSH in the first place.

OSH'S IMPACT AT A GLANCE

OSH worked with an independent consultant to look at our impact between 2023 and 2025.

Abigail D'Amore Associates co-produced an evaluation with a group of OSH young leaders, featuring surveys, interviews, and creative modelling. OSH reached 773 unique young people across 2,137 attendances. Participation more than doubled over that period. The evaluation gives us the clearest picture we have ever had of what OSH does, why it works, and what it makes possible.

The evaluation identified five outcome areas: emotional health, belonging and community, agency and voice, skills and capabilities, and motivation and progression.

"I like to go there and leave the world behind me and just be there — with games and with everything and music."

Many of the young people who come to OSH have experienced displacement, trauma and isolation. What they find here is somewhere they can simply enjoy themselves.

OSH is frequently where young people make their first real friendships in the UK. 86% of participants made new friends and connections on OSH, and 100% of referrers agreed young people made friends on OSH. What's more is that the connections formed here last beyond the programme.

"I wouldn't step out. I was scared. But with OSH, I just feel a whole complete different person now."

Across all groups — young people themselves, referrers, and volunteers — the evidence for growing confidence is consistent and strong. 94% of referrers agreed their young person is more confident speaking since joining OSH (75% strongly agreed)

"I've never ever thought about being a youth worker in my life... OSH totally changed my mind."

OSH's model does not stop at participation. 87% of young leaders went on to lead activities themselves, and 100% said they could inspire other young people with similar experiences (75% strongly agreed).

FUNDRAISING & STAFFING

We had a successful year of fundraising, securing multi-year commitments to support our work. 2025 was also the first year in which we engaged our community in direct fundraising, and we raised £11,000 through The Big Give campaign.

Our fundraising efforts have enabled us to strengthen our infrastructure and grow our staff team from 3.1FTE to 5.4FTE staff. This has allowed for renewed focus on volunteering, leadership, and fundraising.

Our Youth Advisory Board continues to meet monthly, and has set residential themes, shaped hub content, and reviewed plans. Young people have co-produced our leaders' code of conduct, fed into the Leaders' Weekend programming, advised on our evaluation framework, and helped finalise organisational values. They also meet with trustees to bring lived experience into strategic conversations.

STRENGTHENING SAFEGUARDING

Safeguarding has been a key priority for OSH in 2025 and we implemented several new initiatives to support our young people.

We reviewed our safeguarding approach from the ground up, including building our safeguarding expertise, infrastructure and policies.

We started this through a programme of training and supervision across the team and our volunteers to ensure everyone across OSH was well versed in safeguarding best-practices and equipped to deal with any challenges. We recruited Hannah Spark as our new Safeguarding Trustee, who brings a wealth of experience in safeguarding practice and training.

We implemented the MyConcern system, ensuring that reporting is accessible and equitable for all leaders regardless of background.

Looking ahead, we are not resting on our laurels in ensuring that OSH is an organisation in which safeguarding is integrated into everything we do. We are working towards a future in which all staff are trained in trauma-informed care and equipped with the knowledge and capacity to respond confidently when issues arise, and where volunteers have a clear understanding of their safeguarding responsibilities and can navigate positive leader relationships with confidence.

We aim to establish the high standards of accountability around safeguarding, underpinned by a culture and set of processes that reflect genuine best practice, making OSH an example to the wider sector.

Alongside this, we are committed to developing a reliable ecosystem of experts that staff can call on in an emergency, as well as a pool of engaged freelancers who can step into safeguarding roles in a way that is fully aligned with OSH's values and ways of working.

OSH IN 2026

In 2025, we realised the first year of our strategy and invested heavily in our staff team and processes in order to scale effectively in the future. In 2026, we will:

1 Increase our delivery

Deliver 14 residential trips, and expand our local hub offering with both more activities in and around London & Bristol, and also to expand into a third hub.

2 Expand our training

Expand and improve our training offering to volunteers within our movement and beyond.

3 Strengthen our board

Strengthen both the quality and diversity of skills, experience and background of our trustee board.

4 Raise more revenue

Begin work with an extended fundraising team to deliver a strategy across trusts & foundations, major donors, corporate foundations, individual giving, and statutory funds.

5 Convene others

Work with partners Future Leaders to continue convening the Refugee Leadership Summit and more.

I like to go there and leave the world behind me and just be there with games and with everything and music.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to thank all those who have supported us and partnered with us in 2025, most often as donors or as referrers. Some have asked to remain anonymous, and we thank them too.

Trustees' Report For The Year Ended 31 December 2025

The trustees present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Objectives and Activities

Aims and Objectives

The following objects, as set out in the CIO Constitution, are for the public benefit:

- (1) The relief of those in need, by reason of their youth or their social and economic situation for the public benefit through the provision of such information and advice as the trustees deem appropriate.
- (2) To advance young people under the age of 26 in life by providing advice and assistance and organizing programs of physical, educational and other activities as a means of advancing in life and helping such people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;
- (3) To advance the education of the public in general about the issues relating to migrants, especially as set out in the CIO Constitution, and
- (4) To promote social inclusion among people who are refugees, asylum seekers and migrants who are socially excluded on the grounds of their social and economic position.

The main aim of the charity is the provision of residential trips, leadership training programs, and year-round support with and for refugees and people seeking asylum. This is done in order to strengthen three main areas of the beneficiary's experience: identity, community, and leadership.

Grant Distribution

The Charity retains the right to administer grants at its discretion. All grants distributed would be in line with the stated objects of the charity. No grants were distributed during the year

Public Benefit

The charity's main activity is advancing the welfare and integrating of individuals into society who are at a disadvantage by virtue of their youth, social, or economic situation.

The trustees confirm that they have complied with the requirements of Section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

Main Achievements

Non-Financial Achievement

In 2025, Our Second Home had over 1,008 (2024:827) people with refugee backgrounds attending our programming. These were made up of 398 attendances in our residentials and 610 at our non-residential activities, such as our Bristol and London hubs.

People attended on average of 3 activities, with 328 unique participants with lived experience of asylum (2024: 240, 2023: 204).

Participants attended any of a total of 127 events, of which 12 were residential trips (2024: 68, 2023: 77, 2022: 5; 2021: 2).

Other events include 3 (2024:2) leadership training courses with 27 graduates (2024:24) and an annual graduation ceremony. 9 young leaders took up managerial positions within core teams on our trips.

There was also a weekly youth club in Bristol and our youth hub in London organised in collaboration with Hillingdon Refugee Support Group.

We also ran a cycling training course, featuring road safety and maintenance classes, free bikes, and two overnight cycling and camping trips.

As a result of our residentials, 62% of participants told us they had close friends in the UK before the residential, rising to 69% afterwards, while the proportion of those who described themselves as being comfortable communicating in English rose from 71% to 79%.

Financial Performance

In 2025, the charity recorded £39,894 in donations receivable in the year and £1,222 in interest and other income.

Grants receivable during the year amounted to £451,885. A detailed analysis can be found in the notes to the accounts.

Fundraising costs incurred during the year amounted to £31,566 and are detailed in the notes to the accounts.

The charity paid out £361,982 on direct costs in the running and management of the charity. The majority of those costs relate to residential programs and staff salaries. Support and governance costs for the year were £74,297.

No grants were distributed during the year.

Related party transactions are detailed in the notes.

There was an overall net income movement in funds for the year, amounting to a net income of £118,049 of which restricted net income amounted to £21,429 and unrestricted net income of £96,620.

Appreciation

The trustees extend their heartfelt appreciation and gratitude to all donors, employees and volunteers.

Our positive impacts on the charity's beneficiaries would not have been possible without you

Financial Review

Reserves Policy

The trustees have reviewed the level of reserves held by the Charity. The review has concluded that to allow the Charity to be managed efficiently and to provide a buffer for uninterrupted services in the event of unforeseen circumstances, the level of free reserves, being those not tied up in fixed assets, needs to be maintained at not less than six months' expenditure.

The free reserves, comprising of net current assets, stand at £168,886 of which £57,897 are restricted.

Structure, governance and management Charity Structure

Our Second Home is a CIO. It was registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales on 18 January 2022, with charity number 1197551.

Governing Body

The trustees of the Charity are legally responsible for the overall management of the organization. The day-to-day running of the Charity is undertaken by the CEO and the senior management. The CEO is aware of the need to follow best practice and to recruit new trustees as applicable.

The trustees are kept informed of the running of the Charity, and new Trustees will be appointed when and if the need arises.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees would be in line with the Governing Documents. The principal criteria set for the suitable candidate would be someone who is sensitive to the needs and demands required for effective administration of the Charity.

Training and induction of trustees is undertaken as needed.

All major decisions are taken collectively by the trustees and all the trustees give of their time freely. The trustees are unpaid and details of any related party transactions are disclosed as applicable in the notes to the accounts.

The arrangements for setting the pay of the charity's employees are the sole domain of the trustees.

Risk Review

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the Charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to manage exposure to major risks.

The risks faced by the charity are principally operational risks from the ineffective running of the charities programs. These risks are managed by the trustees, ensuring the right staff are utilised and the right policies are implemented.

Procedures are in place to strengthen these safeguards and to ensure public benefit is achieved from all aspects of the charity's management.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees, who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at anytime the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Since the end of the financial year, Hamzah Alqhfa and Wintana Mana Tekie were appointed as a Trustees on the 28th April 2026. They have not therefore participated in the approval of these accounts.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charity's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

The trustees' report was approved by the board of trustees and signed on its behalf by:

Our Second Home
Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Our Second Home
For The Year Ended 31 December 2025

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Our Second Home (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Responsibilities and Basis of Report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent Examiner's Statement

Since the Trust's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a body listed in section 145 of the 2011 Act. I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and contents of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Our Second Home

Notes to the Financial Statements

For The Year Ended 31 December 2025

1. General Information

Our Second Home is a charitable incorporated organisation registered with the Charity Commission, registered charity number 1197551. The principal address is Alexander House, 3 Shakespeare Road, London, N3 1XE.

2. Accounting Policies

2.1. Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)", Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and the Charities Act 2011.

The charity is a Public Benefit Entity as defined by FRS 102.

2.2. Going Concern Disclosure

The Trustees have prepared financial projections, taking into consideration the current economic conditions and have, at the time of approving these accounts, a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus, they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the accounts.

2.3. Incoming Resources

The charity income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities when the charity is entitled to the funds, receipt is probable, and the amount can be measured reliably.

Donations and Legacies

Donations are recognised when received or, where there is sufficient evidence of entitlement (such as a signed deed of covenant or pledge), when receivable. Legacies are recognised when probate has been granted, the estate has been sufficiently administered, and the amount can be reliably estimated.

Grants

Grants are recognised when the conditions of the grant have been met and entitlement has been established. Where a grant is subject to conditions that have not yet been fulfilled at the year end, income is deferred and included within creditors until those conditions are satisfied.

Donated Goods and Services

Donated goods are recognised at fair value at the date of receipt. Donated services are recognised where they would otherwise have been purchased and a reliable estimate of fair value can be made. Volunteer time is not recognised in the accounts.

Other Income

Other income, including fundraising and charitable activities income, is recognised when the related activity or event has taken place and entitlement has been established.

2.4. Resources Expended

Grant Distribution

The Charity retains the right to administer grants at its discretion. All grants distributed would be in line with the stated objects of the charity. No grants were distributed during the year.

2.5. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are basic financial assets and include cash in hand and deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and are readily convertible to a known amount of cash with insignificant risk of change in value, and bank overdrafts.

3. Income from Donations and Legacies
